

33rd Foundation Day
18th August 2023
Progati College, Agomani

33rd Foundation Day of Progati College, Agomani has been celebrated auspiciously on 18th August 2023.

This happy day which for us a holy day has been celebrated gorgeously in which Ex. G.B. president/Secretary, Ex. G.B. Members, Ex. M.L.A. & OBC Morcha President, Assam, Alumni President/Secretary, Alumni members, social workers, neighbors, students and teachers have attended.

As per the schedule of programme plantation, flag hoisting, new building opening, open meeting and cultural programmes have been implemented successfully.

Dr. Basir Uddin Bepari Principal of this college started the celebration of the day by planting plants within the college campus.

Mr. Jagannath Paul honorable president of the college has hoisted College flag and delivers his valuable speech on the physical and academic progress of the college.

An open meeting is held which is presided over by the G.B. President. In the meeting the Ex-officials, Ex-students and invited guests are welcomed. Some speakers deliver their valuable speech on the past history of the college, present progress of the college. They also inform the students how the college had been established and has stepped at the present.

The valuable speeches delivered by the honorable Guests and teachers of this college highlight career building process which is very inspirational and effective.

In this programme “Progati” a multilingual research book published by this college and “An Anthology of Research book” written by Mr. Ganesh Chandra Saha have been inaugurated.

After tea break cultural programme has been started for the enjoyment through which the students display their genius in song, dance, recitation, music and acting.

Overall the programme has been celebrated successfully which is a part of pride of this college.

Principal
Progti College, Agomani