

Educational Excursion in Jaipur, Rajasthan

Dated: 10.01.2019 to 17.01.2019

On the 10th January 2019, a group of 8 members set out for Educational Excursion Tour under the leadership of Mr. Pranab Kumar Podder, Asstt. Prof. Deptt. of Economics, Progati College, Agomani. The venue for the tour was the capital of Rajasthan, Jaipur. The journey started on that very day from New Cooch Bihar by train. The team reached their destination on the next day i.e., 11th January. Jaipur is the most important Historical sites in India. The excursion program began on 12th January 2019 with visiting historical places like Jantar Mantar, Hawa Mahal, Albert Hall Museum, City palace. Next day the schedule included some other places of Jaipur like Amber Fort and palace, Jal Mahal, Rambagh palace. The last day of the excursion ended up with the visit to Pushkar and Ajmer sharif of Rajasthan. After a three-day long excursion program, the team returned from Jaipur by train starting the journey from Jaipur and they reached on 17th January.

Feedback of the Excursion program in Jaipur (Rajasthan):

During our excursion program in Rajasthan, we visit some of the places like Ambar palace in Jaipur, Brahma Mandir in Pushkar and Moinuddin Chishti Dargah in Ajmer Sharif. In Ambar palace we could come across some historical facts about the kings of Rajasthan. The Brahma Mandir in Pushkar and Moinuddin Chishti Dargah in Ajmer Sharif are the holiest places in Rajasthan with great educational importance.

P.T.O

